

What We've Loved About This Home

- The warm, welcoming layout that makes everyday living easy and comfortable.
- Beautiful mountain views that never get old.
- Enjoying morning coffee on the front or back patio while taking in the peaceful surroundings.
- The large yard where our kids have spent countless hours playing, exploring, and making memories.
- The tire swing, garden, and backyard chickens that have brought so much joy to our family.
- Coming home to a peaceful retreat after a busy day.
- A quiet, family-friendly neighborhood where kids can safely ride bikes and play outside.
- Convenient access to schools, shopping, parks, trails, and everything you need for daily life.
- An easy commute to Wasilla or Anchorage.
- Being just minutes from local coffee shops, farmers markets, and community events like the Palmer Friday Fling.
- Walking and biking trails that connect directly into Palmer.
