Audio-Video Surveillance Disclosure

The following disclosure form is provided to help sellers and buyers understand and comply with Florida law with respect to home surveillance devices.

►Florida law requires the consent of all parties to record telephone calls or in-person conversations, including videotaped conversations that capture sound.
►If a Seller has security cameras that also record any conversations, i.e. have audio recording capabilities; all parties must consent to that recording.
►With respect to video recording only, it is permissible as long as written notice is clearly given on the premises or the recording device is immediately obvious.
