

Seller's Property Disclosure – Residential

Notice to Licensee and Seller: Only the Seller should fill out this form.

Notice to Seller: Florida law¹ requires a Seller of a home to disclose to the Buyer all known facts that materially affect the value of the property being sold and that are not readily observable or known by the Buyer. This disclosure form is designed to help you comply with the law. However, this disclosure form may not address every significant issue that is unique to the Property. You should think about what you would want to know if you were buying the Property today; and if you need more space for additional information, comments, or explanations, check the Paragraph 12 checkbox and attach an addendum.

Notice to Buyer: The following representations are made by Seller and not by any real estate licensee. This disclosure is not a guaranty or warranty of any kind. It is not a substitute for any inspections, warranties, or professional advice you may wish to obtain. It is not a substitute for your own personal judgment and common sense. The following information is based only upon Seller's actual knowledge of the Property's condition. Sellers can disclose only what they actually know. Seller may not know about all material or significant items. You should have an independent, professional home inspection to verify the condition of the Property and determine the cost of repairs, if any. This disclosure is not a contract and is not intended to be a part of any contract for sale and purchase.

Flood Disclosure

Florida Statute 689.302 requires a seller to complete and provide a flood disclosure to a purchaser of residential real property at or before the time the sales contract is executed.

David E Lakin

Seller, _____, provides Buyer the following flood disclosure at or before the time the sales contract is executed.

8343 Yellow Pine Ave, Brooksville, FL 34613

Property address: _____

Seller, please check the applicable boxes in paragraphs (1) through (3) below.

FLOOD DISCLOSURE

Flood Insurance: Homeowners' insurance policies do not include coverage for damage resulting from floods. Buyer is encouraged to discuss the need to purchase separate flood insurance coverage with Buyer's insurance agent.

- (1) Seller has has no knowledge of any flooding that has damaged the property during Seller's ownership of the property.
- (2) Seller has has not filed a claim with an insurance provider relating to flood damage on the property, including, but not limited to, a claim with the National Flood Insurance Program.
- (3) Seller has has not received assistance for flood damage to the property, including, but not limited to, assistance from the Federal Emergency Management Agency.
- (4) For the purposes of this disclosure, the term "flooding" means a general or temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of the property caused by any of the following:
 - a. The overflow of inland or tidal waters.
 - b. The unusual and rapid accumulation of runoff or surface waters from any established water source, such as a river, stream, or drainage ditch.
 - c. Sustained periods of standing water resulting from rainfall.

(5) If you are purchasing a flood damaged property, you should be aware that many counties in Florida who participate in FEMA's Flood insurance program are required to adhere to both FEMA's and State Requirements with respect to rebuilding and repairs in Coastal Flood damaged areas. Counties throughout Florida generally have ordinances which follow state and federal requirements with respect to the cost of repairing the Flood damage exceeding 50% in monetary costs vs the assessed building value of the property. Your own estimation of costs for remediation and repairs may differ from the counties estimation at time of permit application. Should the repairs for damages exceed the 50% rule, you may be forced to elevate the structure to FEMA's and local/federal building codes, or demolish the home through condemnation. Buyer's are solely responsible to do their own due diligence with regard to these rules and should not rely on any statements from their Real Estate Broker, Real Estate Agent, Or Sellers. By proceeding and purchasing a flood damaged home, you agree to hold People's Trust Realty Inc, its agents and or affiliated businesses forever harmless from any damage or additional costs you may incur associated with purchasing, closing on, repairing, or reselling a flood damaged property.
