Wire Fraud Warning

NEVER trust wiring instructions received through email. Cybercriminals are infiltrating email accounts and dispatching messages containing deceptive wiring details. These communications can appear highly convincing and well-crafted. Always verify wiring instructions independently, either in person or through a phone call to a trusted, verified number. Recovering funds sent to a fraudulent account is frequently impossible. Real estate agents and firms bear no responsibility for the transmission, forwarding, or verification of any wiring or money transfer instructions.
